

STORY ANGLES

For a Teen Girl Audience

The Truth About Guys and Their Virginity. 28% of teen guys polled by Dr. Jenn were upset they gave their virginity away to a girl who didn't care. Some even reported losing it in ways that would be considered de facto rape if they were girls. Some teenage girls collect so-called "V cards" to keep score of the number of boys they've deflowered. "These girls like the power and thrill of being a guy's first, even if they don't have any feelings for him," Dr. Jenn says. She can discuss boys' true feelings about their virginity, and how to be respectful of them sexually and otherwise.

Are you a "Hyena Girl?" You may have heard of "cougars" – older women who prey on younger men. But now, to describe sexually aggressive teen girls who play fast, loose and mean with teen boys, Dr. Jenn has coined the term "hyena girls" after the female spotted hyena, which is far more aggressive than its male counterpart, right down to sexually explicit taunting. She can discuss the downside of being a hyena and prescribe her Reputation ER.

Teen Guys Prefer Ladies – Dr. Jenn surveyed over 200 teen boys and found that 85% of teen boys want girls to act like ladies. "They don't know how to be gentlemen or what it means to be a man," said Dr. Jenn. 75% said they want to see less flesh flashed in their faces. "We're tired of it," one teen boy wrote. Dr. Jenn can discuss what this trend means for the future of teen relationships.
